In consideration of any permit issued in respect to this application, the Applicant shall indemnify and hold harmless Lamont County its employees and agents from any and all claims, demands, actions, and costs whatsoever that may arise, directly or indirectly from anything done in the construction, maintenance, alteration, or operation of the works authorized. The Applicant consents hereby also to a person designated by Lamont County to enter upon land for the purpose of inspection during the processing of this application.

It is understood that all works will be constructed, altered, maintained, or operated at the sole expense of the undersigned, and that work must not begin before a permit has been issued by Lamont County. The issuance of a permit by Lamont County does not relieve the holder of the responsibility of complying with relevant municipal bylaws and this permit once issued does not excuse violation of any regulation, bylaw, or act which may affect this project.

I/We hereby declare that I/we have read the applicable information sheet on development and that the information provided in this application is, to the best of my/our knowledge, factual and correct.

Information for Recreational Uses / Recreational Vehicle Campground Uses

It is important to read and understand the following before completing the development permit application. Please contact the Planning and Development Department if you require more detail.

Definitions:

"Recreational use" means a recreational development conducted on a unified basis on a single site where the prime reason for location is to take advantage of natural physical features including the availability of large areas of land to provide day-to-day sporting and athletic facilities and the structures incidental thereto. This includes ski slopes, golf courses, archery, trap and rifle ranges, race tracks, boating, riding swimming, picnicking, community halls, skating and curling rinks, drop-in centres, and sports grounds, and similar uses, and may include a refreshment stand incidental to the primary use;

"Recreational vehicle campground" means a development consisting of sites for the location of more than one recreational vehicle;

"Recreational vehicle" means a vehicular type unit primarily designed as temporary living quarters for recreational camping or travel use, which either has its own motive power or is mounted or drawn by another vehicle. The base entities are travel trailer, camping trailer, truck camper, and motor home;

1. Make sure the application form is complete and includes the appropriate fees. These fees are set according to the Fees and Charges Bylaw approved by Council.
2. The development permit application must be accompanied by the following:
  - a) a site plan showing the legal description; the front, rear, and side yards, if any; any provision for off-street loading and vehicle parking; access and egress points to the site; and any encumbrance such as rights-of-way;
  - b) a statement of the proposed uses;
  - c) a statement of ownership of the land and the interest of the applicant therein, including the written consent of the registered owner or owners of the land; and
  - d) a copy of a title search for the subject site; and
  - e) indicate if the development will be situated within 1.6 km of a landfill for the disposal of garbage or refuse, intensive livestock operation or a sewage treatment/sewage lagoon.
3. You may need to include some of the following with your application in order for the Development Authority to assess the conformity of a proposed development with this Bylaw. Such information may include:
  - a) floor plans, elevations and sections of any proposed buildings;
  - b) grading and landscaping plans;
  - c) location of existing and proposed municipal and/or private sanitary sewer and water services;
  - d) the identification of all right-of-ways and easements within or abutting the subject property;
  - e) any additional information as the Development Authority deems necessary and,
  - f) in the case of the placement of an already constructed or partially constructed building on a parcel of land, information such as pictures of the building relating to the age and condition of the building and its compatibility with the District in which it is to be located
  - g) a site plan detailing how vegetation, topography disturbance or erosion is to be minimized may be required by the Development Authority
  - h) a Real Property Report relating to the site that is the subject of the development permit application.
4. In addition to any or all of the information required above, each application for a recreational development must be accompanied by the following information:
  - (a) physical suitability of site with respect to soils, slopes and drainage,
  - (b) the size and number of parcels and proposed phasing (if any),
  - (c) servicing requirements and provisions for meeting them,
  - (d) costs associated with providing new or upgraded municipal services associated with the development,
  - (e) the requirements and provisions for employee and customer parking and for site access,
  - (f) a landscaping plan,
  - (g) cross-sections and elevations for each building, and
  - (h) a list of proposed uses.
  - (i) estimated number of employees,

- (j) hours and days of operation,
- (k) traffic impact,
- (l) reason for specific location,
- (m) and/or any other information as may be reasonably required by the Development Authority.

5. Review of a development proposal may be delayed if the form and/or additional information provided is incomplete. Should this happen we will need to contact you.
6. A permit is valid for 12 months from the date it is issued. If the development has not commenced within twelve (12) months from the date of its issuance and completed within twenty-four (24) months from the date of commencement, the permit is deemed to be void, unless an extension to this period is granted by the Development Authority.
7. A permit comes into effect the 15th day after the date of issuance on the notice of decision. If a Development Officer:
  - a) refuses or fails to issue a Development Permit, or
  - b) issues a Development Permit subject to conditions, or
  - c) fails to make a decision within 40 days of accepting a completed application; then,

The person applying for the permit or a person affected by a decision or Development Permit issued by a Development Officer, may appeal to the Subdivision and Development Appeal Board (SDAB) within 14 days of the notice of issuance of a permit. The SDAB may confirm, revoke or vary any decision of the Development Officer, and Development Permit or any condition, or may make or substitute any decision or permit of its own.

There is no appeal against a Development Permit for a permitted use unless the provisions of the Land Use Bylaw were relaxed, varied or misinterpreted.

8. All of the information and plans relating to this request shall conform to the Land Use Bylaw and any of its amendments.
